Panhellenic Association Executive Officer Reports

- President, Anyaleen Bradley: president.csupha@gmail.com
 - Thank all your chapters for attending FSL awards! It was so fun to hear all the amazing things your chapters do.
 - March is Women's History Month and Self-Harm Awareness Month
 - We in the process of starting to plan one or two PHA specific Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM) events
 - Take back the night is April 26th
 - More details to come on the rest of the month
 - All chapter members: Vacancy- Recruitment Promotions
 - Application due March 19th at 5pm
 - PLEASE ANNOUNCE THIS TO YOUR CHAPTERS
 - Encourage women to apply who you think would be good fits!
 - Interviews are March 23rd (evening)
 - Please email me with any questions
 - Requirements for the position:

- Cumulative GPA of 2.8, past semester GPA of 2.5
- Completed at least 30 credit hours
- Be in good chapter standing
- Looking for someone who has a background in graphic design and/or PR
- Position Expectations:
 - Develop, plan, and implement a comprehensive year-round public relations and marketing strategy for all Panhellenic recruitment events. Specifically, coordinate the pre-recruitment marketing strategy.
 - Conduct post-recruitment meetings and evaluations with recruitment officers to obtain suggestions and comments for the following year's formal membership recruitment marketing efforts.
 - Coordinate with Vice President of Public Relations to ensure council and community marketing efforts and branding are consistent for the Panhellenic Association.
 - Participate in joint efforts with the Vice President of Public Relations for any social media posts about recruitment events.
 - Attend Recruitment Management Team meetings.
 - Meet weekly with the Vice President of Recruitment and Panhellenic advisor.
 - Develop the potential new member booklet.
 - Serve as the project team lead on all planning efforts including recruitment apparel, summer giveaways, nametags, etc.
 - Oversee all marketing initiatives for Panhellenic recruitment with the Vice President of Public Relations
 - Complete at least two regularly scheduled office hours each week in the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.
 - Serve as a member of the Recruitment Management Team ~~and disassociate during formal recruitment.~~
 - Serve as an FSL Ambassador for the spring, summer, and fall orientation programs as a Panhellenic representative with the Vice President of Recruitment and complete all required training.
 - Meet regularly and communicate regularly with the Vice President of Recruitment and advisor(s).
 - Perform all other duties as assigned.
- Suspension of the bylaws
 - Article IV, section 9: "Should there be a vacancy after the initial election process, the position will be filled as soon as possible by an application and question and answer period to the Panhellenic Council process with no slate presented. All applicants are able to participate. Once the open position(s) are announced, there will be a period of time for the applications to be read by the slating committee or the newly slated officers and top candidates to be selected. The top candidates will attend the Panhellenic Council meeting for a question and answer process with delegates. Immediately following the question and answer period, the following council meeting the delegates will perform a ballot vote to select the final candidate. Candidate must be determined by two thirds vote”

- The first day we could present the candidates would be March 27th, this would put our final day at April 10th
- We have an opportunity to go to the Association of Fraternal Leadership and Values conference April 6th-9th and I would like this person to be able to go
- April 10th gives us less than a month with this person before summer...
- Please trust us, as we are most familiar with the position and know what qualities and skills we are looking for
- Question of the day: What is one thing you do or you see your sisters do every day that contributes to living your ritual and values?
- Executive Vice President, Emily Fricke: executivevp.csupha@gmail.com
- Director of Finance, Autumn Scott: finance.csupha@gmail.com
 - Delegates: Invoices for new member dues will be sent out the Monday we get back from break! Please remind your chapter presidents to keep your rosters updated so that I can invoice for the correct amount of members.
- Vice President of Recruitment, Mikaela Kendall: recruitment.csupha@gmail.com
 - Recruitment Chairs: Thank you SO much for coming to our first roundtable. I think it went very well and sincerely appreciate your feedback.
