 - i. 4.6.17: Rape Supportive Culture in the Media, 7-8 p.m., LSC 328-330
From advertisements to movies, we are constantly surrounded by media that promotes a culture that supports sexual assault and rape. In this workshop, we will learn how to critically analyze the media we consume, and how to use that knowledge in our daily lives.

- ii. 4.10.17: Let's Talk About Porn! Men in the Movement Open Event, 5:30-6:45 p.m., Clark C146

Pornography shapes our world in more ways than you think. Join the conversation as we look beneath the surface at the pornography industry and how it impacts how we view our world. Open to all genders.

- iii. 4.13.17: Healing and Self-Care After Trauma, 7-8 p.m., LSC 328-330

When we talk about "self-care" and "healing", that language can often sound lofty, and unattainable. Self-care looks different for everyone. This workshop will help explain some of the types of self-care, why it is important, and allow participants to get hands-on experience exploring self-care styles to find one that is right for them.

- iv. 4.17.17: Keynote Speaker: Sandra Kim, 7-8 p.m., LSC Theater

She launched in June 2012, Everyday Feminism has become known for having one of the most popular feminist digital media sites in the world, with a readership of a few million monthly visitors from over 150 countries and a team of over 40 writers.
