

Colorado State University

Morgan Library,
Multicultural Services has created a research guide for Native American
Heritage Month at: [http://lib-guides.colostate.edu/
nativeamerican](http://lib-guides.colostate.edu/nativeamerican)

Saturday October 19
Fort Collins Bookfest Keynote
Speaker: Chef Sean Sherman,
the Sioux Chef
Lory Student Center Theater
5:30 p.m.

Chef Sean Sherman, Oglala Lakota, born in Pine Ridge, SD, has been cooking across the U.S. and Mexico over the past 30 years, and has become renowned nationally and internationally in the culinary movement of indigenous foods. He is the author of the top cookbook, The Sioux Chef's Indigenous Kitchen. This year, he is a featured speaker for the Fort Collins Book Fest. His keynote is in collaboration with The Fort Collins Library and The Fort Collins Museum of Discovery.

Wednesday October 23
Queer Connections,
collaboration with Pride
Resource Center
Topic: The Colonization of
Gender & Sexuality
4:00p.m.-5:30p.m.
Lory Student Center 308,
Colorado State University

Learn about how the concepts of gender and sexuality have been altered by the colonization of the Americas regarding to Native American identities. Queer Connections provides weekly gathering time to be in community with others who share LGBTQ+ identities and explore topics related to queer and trans identities, coming out, and navigating campus and the surrounding community.

Thursday October 24
Pow wow 101
6:30p.m.-7:30p.m.
LSC Room 324,
Colorado State University

Pow wow is a wonderful way to remember and celebrate heritage, culture and traditions among Native Americans. Join local resident, Randy Medicine Bear, who will explain the basics of Pow-wow. The presentation will range from the different styles of dancing and singing, to the traditional aspects of pow wow, including an overview of the day's events and celebration.

Friday October 25
Frybread Sale, Drum Group
and Pow wow Dance Expo
11:00a.m.-1:00p.m.
LSC Plaza,
Colorado State University

To celebrate Native American Heritage Month and the 37th Annual AISES Pow Wow, drum groups and dancers will provide performances to preview Saturday's event. Frybread will be sold at the event!

Saturday October 26
Colorado State University
37th Annual AISES Pow wow

- Gourd Dance 10:30a.m.-12:30p.m.
- Pow wow 1:00p.m.-10:00p.m.
- Grand Entry 1:00p.m. & 7:00p.m.
- Pow wow Feed 5:00p.m. (free)

The Lory Student Center,
Grand Ballrooms,
Colorado State University

In an effort to increase awareness of Native cultures at Colorado State University, the Native American Cultural Center, American Indian Science & Engineering Society, Associated Students of Colorado State University and Colorado State University will sponsor the 37th Annual CSU Pow wow. Community members and students alike are welcome and encouraged to attend this free event, which will feature Pow wow dancers, drum groups, food, vendors, social events and more.

Tuesday October 29
Wednesday October 30
CSU Dining Halls
Native American Heritage
Month Specials:
The Indigenous Kitchen
The Foundry

Please join us at the Foundry dining hall located in Corbett Hall for a special dining experience: "The Indigenous Kitchen" - a series of feasts featuring foods indigenous to North America. The meals will be featured during dinner on 10/29, and lunch and dinner on 10/30.

Thursday October 31
Friday November 1
Aspen Grille –
Featured Traditional Native American Dishes:

Do you enjoy corn, sunflower seeds, potatoes, squash, and pumpkins? How about tomatoes, strawberries, and chile peppers? They are all native to the Americas and have been part of the diet of Native Americans since time immemorial. Make your reservations at the LSC Aspen Grille to enjoy lunch specials prepared by Chef Ken Symsack that recognizes these gifts to today's cuisine.

For reservations
please call 970-491-7006 or visit:
<https://lsc.colostate.edu/dining-at-the-lory-student-center/aspen-grille/>

Tuesday November 5
Duhesa Art Gallery Reception
America! America!
Featuring comments from the artist, John Hitchcock
4:30p.m.-6:30p.m.
Lory Student Center
Duhesa Gallery

John Hitchcock is a visual artist whose work who explores the intersection between cultures through the land, language, and the visual symbols of the Great Plains. Hitchcock draws from his experiences growing up on native land that sits adjacent to Fort Sills in Oklahoma, this area serves as the current homelands of the Comanche, Kiowa and Apache Nations. Gallery walkthrough and words from the artist at 5:15 p.m.
(Co-Sponsored with Campus Activities and the Lory Student Center Arts Program).

Thursday November 7
Walking in Beauty: An Evening
with Orlando Dugi
7:00p.m.-8:30p.m.
Avenir Museum

Orlando Dugi (Diné) is a designer based in Santa Fe, and his work is the featured exhibition at the Avenir Museum this fall. This keynote lecture will focus on his work and career in conjunction with the exhibition. This exhibition presents examples of his women's evening wear and handbags in an exploration of the evolution of this unique designer (Co-Sponsored with Dept. of Design & Merchandising and Avenir Museum).

Tuesday November 12
Keynote Speaker: Kristina
Maldonado Bad Hand
Lory Student Center
Long's Peak Room
6:00p.m.-7:30p.m.

Kristina Maldonado Bad Hand (Sicangu Lakota & Cherokee) artist that hails from Taos, New Mexico. Her passion for community and social justice have led her to create, through illustration, a place in which indigenous youth, and particularly Indigenous women, are empowered. Kristina is the director and co-producer of Indigenous Pop X, Denver's first Indigenous centric pop culture and comic art festival. She is a commissioner on the Denver American Indian Commission.
(Co-Sponsored with RamEvents)

Tuesday November 19
Harvest Dinner,
Community Event
6:30p.m.-8:30p.m.
Location TBA

Ron Hall and Roe Bubar, owners of Arikara Farm worked the farm this year to engage students, family, and the community to support our farm as we grew traditional food and heritage turkey to bring about the Harvest for our Community Dinner. Come join in the "Indigenous Food Revolution" to learn how the earth is our teacher and food is our medicine. Arikara Farm and NACC are pleased to support this Indigenous Community Dinner.

The Native American Cultural Center would like to thank and acknowledge the following organizations for their participation:

Chris Eagle Iron; Roe Bubar and Ron Hall; American Indian Science Engineering Society; RamEvents; Campus Activities; the Pride Resource Center; LSC Arts Program, ASCSU; Trees, Water & People; Division of Student Affairs; Department of Ethnic Studies; Avenir Museum; Department of Design & Merchandising; Native Women's Circle; Morgan Library; Fort Collins Library; Fort Collins Museum of Discovery; the Lory Student Center; Aspen Grille; University Housing; and the Iron Family.