    - i. Applications must be submitted to the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life by a date scheduled by the current executive board. The MGC advisor(s) or MGC President/chair shall hold the completed application in confidence until being distributed to the Slating Committee for review prior to their meeting.
    - ii. Between the application due date and MGC elections, the Slating Committee reviews completed applications, conducts interviews with candidates, and matches each executive board office to the most qualified candidate. Immediately following, a representative of the Slating Committee contacts each slated candidate for permission to place their name on the slate. Once all slated candidates have granted permission for their name to be placed on the slate, all remaining applicants will be notified that they were not slated for a position and the slate will be made public and available to MGC.
    - iii. The Slating Committee prepares a statement of qualifications for each person slated. This document is shared with the MGC Delegates. At an MGC delegate meeting, the slate will be formally presented for consideration. In the event that the Slating Committee feels there were not adequate options to fill the executive board, they may choose to reopen applications and conduct additional interviews.
    - iv. Challengers to the slate may present a challenge to the slate at the MGC meeting immediately following when the slate is presented. Challengers must have previously submitted applications, and must be nominated by an MGC delegate. They will be given the opportunity to read their qualifications and explain why they would be better suited for their chosen position on the slate. Delegates will then do a vote by ballot to indicate whether they would like to choose the slated representative or the challenger, and there must be a two-thirds vote in favor of one candidate in order for that person to be added to the slate.
- D. MGC Elections
  - a. The ballot is prepared with the names and offices of those slated by the Slating Committee and any additional nominees put forth by the MGC.

- b. Under general orders, the MGC President distributes the ballots and the statement of qualifications previously developed by the Slating Committee to each chapter representative.
